DANIEL CODY ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR MILWAUKEE COUNTY SUPERVISOR IN THE 15TH DISTRICT

Citing Need for ‘The Next Generation of Leadership’, Cody Will Bring Energy, Progressive Values, and Fresh Ideas to the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors

MILWAUKEE, WI – Daniel Cody formally announced Wednesday his intention to run for the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors in the 15th district, a seat currently held by Lynne DeBruin. Cody is a leader in the State and County Democratic Party, IT administrator at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee, and steward for his union, the Wisconsin Professional Employee’s Council, AFT local 4848.

“Milwaukee County faces numerous challenges and needs a leader who has the energy to fight on it's behalf to revitalize our parks, utilize tax dollars in an efficient manner, and restore the public's faith in County Government,” said Cody. “People across Milwaukee County are standing up and saying, ‘enough is enough’ when it comes to our neglected parks, chronic pension scandals, and County Supervisors who are out of touch with their constituents.”

Supervisor DeBruin is an entrenched politician who was first elected to the County Board in 1992 and has run unopposed in the last two elections. “Many residents of the 15th district have expressed their displeasure in only hearing from their Supervisor when it’s an election year. I agree with them and promise to make community involvement a top priority when elected. The residents of the 15th district deserve nothing less,” he continued.
